

1890

Chas. A. Blatchford & Sons, Ltd is founded in the United Kingdom

1993

Introduced the first microprocessor controlled knee

2008

Introduced a hydraulic controlled foot/ankle combination

1968

Designed the first modular assembly prosthesis

2000 - 2006

Introduced three new microprocessor knees and an independent patient adjustable alignment device

2009

Further expansion of the carbon fiber foot range with the addition of two new feet

1976

First to win three prestigious design awards in one year, including a Queen's Award for Technology

2006 - 2007

Expanded the use of carbon fiber and added three innovative feet to the range

2009

Hydraulic foot/ankle receives the BEEZA award for design

1983

Introduced the first limb system utilizing carbon fiber composites

2008

Introduced the first polycentric knee with swing and stance hydraulic control

2010

Recipient of the Queen's Award for Innovation and the 120th Anniversary of the Company

