

echelon

The echelon foot is a unique prosthetic device with stance phase hydraulic control of the ankle. Controlled self alignment of the ankle increases knee stability, confidence and safety for the amputee on ramps, slopes and varied terrain without the need for external power sources. Increased knee stability on all surfaces offers additional comfort allowing the amputee to get busy living

Circle # 58 on Readers' Service Card

SPS
Experience Our Commitment

www.spsco.com | www.endolite.com
800.767.7776 | 800.548.3534

endolite
get busy living