it's time to Evolve...

Off the Shelf

The OTS liner is available in both Pin and non-pin configurations and a wide range of sizes. Coated with a non-stick material that allows the liner to slide on itself for easy application. Also available is a soft distal cup for sensitive distal areas.

Custom

A true individual custom liner made from your cast or CAD file. The liner is made from a high quality platinum cured silicone that does not absorb body fluids, or allow bacterial buildup or odor. The Evolution Liner is tear resistant and does not compress over time.
