

“You’re Why I’m Here.”

“Actually, why we’re all here.”

Our goal is simple – to provide the best possible service to you.

Otto Bock's Customer Satisfaction Manager, Sharon Baldauf, is one of the more visible people on our team. You can call Sharon anytime at 1.877.627.6583.

On behalf of all of us, she'd like to thank all of you who responded to our third customer satisfaction survey. At Otto Bock, our entire team is working on behalf of you and your patient, and we take your feedback seriously. Your responses and suggestions give us a complete picture of how we are doing, and inspire and motivate us to serve you even better.

So thank you... from all of us.
